Wage Earner Protection Program

On June 14, 2007, the Government of Canada announced that it is moving forward on legislation that will help workers and reform Canada's insolvency system. An important part of the reform of bankruptcy and insolvency legislation, the Wage Earner Protection Program protects workers by providing for the payment of unpaid wages and earned vacation pay of up to an amount equalling four weeks' maximum insurable earnings under the Employment Insurance Act (or approximately $3,000 at this time) when employers go bankrupt.
